OUR UNION: WORKING FOR RNs

“When you’re alone fighting for your rights it can be very challenging. What many nurses aren’t aware of is we have support and more importantly the strength of our union to advocate and assist us at every turn.

I can’t express the joy felt when I got my job back and my benefits were taken care of for the whole time I was off”.

Virginia Wright, RN
SRN, Grossmont Radiology

Our contract protects us from unjust treatment

Virginia Wright, a RN at Grossmont Hospital in the ACC Department was unjustly terminated by Sharp. Her union filed a grievance in order to protect her rights and ensure fair treatment. The grievance forced hospital management to meet with us to show proof that the termination was justified.

They failed to do so, therefore, she was returned to her job with back pay for the wages lost.

We have fairness and a voice at work because of our union.
